

I pay for a service to the phone company only to receive calls from the people I gave my phone number to. I should not be bothered by anyone else. All telemarketing activity should be banned unless you request to receive that kind of calls.

You should not have to ask to be removed from lists. All lists should be banned, unless you are willing to be included in one.